“...he has given us his very great and precious promises, so that through them you may participate in the divine nature and escape the corruption in the world caused by evil desires.”

Why the title, “Bible Nomad”?

Because this guide is easily transportable and can help you navigate your Bible for a fairly large selection of important information. Many of the lists in this guide are not covered adequately in Study Bibles eg Bible symbols and God's Titles. Some of the lists are more exhaustive than average eg over 90 of Jesus' parables and over 110 combination titles of God. Most Study Bibles list only 35-40 of the major parables of Jesus, not listing the many shorter parables and for some reason neglecting altogether parables found in John's Gospel record.

The Prominent Names section is designed to bring together several authorities in the one place, which hopefully gives you a fair idea of the name meaning at a glance.

It should be stressed that this booklet is purely to help Bible readers find their way through God's Word. Any suspected bias or private opinion contained in headings or sub-headings should be strenuously tested by carefully reading the Scriptures offered, in context. After all, none of us would like the following words of Jesus to apply to us:

“You are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God.” Matt.22:29

We should never add or take away from God's Word. See Prov.30:5-6; Rev.22:18-19

The Name of God

Hebrew	English	Comments	References	Strong's
Hayah	I am	Derived from "havah" (1933), meaning "to breathe" or "to exist" God is the only self existent one . (hayah asher hayah, Exod.3:14).	Exod.3:14	1961
YHWH	LORD	From 1961. God's memorial name, Hos.12:5-6. Appears in the Hebrew as YHWH . The addition of vowels to YHWH aids English pronunciation eg YeHoWaH, YaHoWaH, YaHWeH . "Jehovah" is of Latin origin, BDN.	Exod.3:15, 8:10 Deut.5:6 Psa.83:18 Isa.45:5,18	3068
YHWH	GOD	Read by Jews as "Elohim", and appears as "GOD" in capitals in the AV and NKJV. "Sovereign LORD" in the NIV.	Psa.68:20 Ezek.38:17	3069
Yah	LORD Yah or Jah	Shortened form of Yahweh. Occasionally appears as "Yah" or "Jah" instead of "LORD" (Isa.26:4 NKJV). (The phrase, "praise the LORD" in the Psalms is often the word "Yah" in the original Hebrew. The following references from the Psalms are "Yah" in the original Hebrew but are translated LORD in the AV, Psa.77:11, 94:7,12, 104:35, 106:48, 113:9)	Psa.68:4 (AV) Psa.68:4 (NKJV) Isa.12:2 (NKJV) Isa.38:11 (NKJV)	3050

Titles of God (O.T.)

Ab	Father	God is also styled "our Father" in the Old Testament, emphasising the "family" relationship. This will be a Kingdom Age title of God (Jer.3:4, 19, 31:9). Jesus' use of this title was foretold (Psalm 89:26).	Deut.32:6 Isa.63:16, 64:8 Mal.1:6, 2:10	1

Some interesting Bible facts

● The word 'Bible' comes from the Greek word 'biblia', a word of Latin origin and simply meaning, 'books'. This word had its beginnings with the word 'biblos', which referred to any kind of written document, but originally to one written on the inner bark of the papyrus plant that was imported from Egypt.

● Did you know that in 1947 a collection of the oldest manuscripts of the Bible were discovered in a cave in Wadi Qumran on the north of the Dead Sea. Among this collection was a 23-foot leather scroll containing the complete book of Isaiah. This copy of Isaiah is unique proof of the reliability of the Holy Scriptures, for the text agrees exactly with what we have in our present day Bible. From a total of 11 caves many more scrolls of different books were discovered. In the early 1960s a special museum in Jerusalem called, the Shrine of the Book, was built to house many of the scrolls.

● By 500AD the Bible had been translated into many languages. Not long after this though, the church ruled that all Bibles had to be in Latin, which effectively took the Bible away from the ordinary folk of many countries. An early break from this ruling were the Gospels written in Anglo-Saxon in the 10th century, and known as the 'Wessex Gospels'.

The very first book printed was the Bible at Mentz in Germany, by Johannes Guttenberg who was the inventor of the 'movable type' printing press. By 1455 he had printed the Bible in Latin, the first edition being 180 copies.

● The first English translation of the Bible was made and hand written in the 1380's by John Wycliffe. It is possible to go back to manuscripts earlier than Wycliffe, but the language is very "Anglo-Saxon", and not very close to today's English. Although he died a non-violent death, the Pope was so infuriated by his teachings that 44 years after Wycliffe had died, he ordered his bones to be dug up, crushed, and scattered in the river.

● The first printed English New Testament was by William Tyndale, 1525-1526, who was imprisoned and then burnt at the stake by the religious leaders of the day for his valiant effort. Tyndale's loyal assistants, Myles Coverdale and John Rogers, continued Tyndale's work, and finished their translation of the Old Testament. The first complete Bible in English was printed in 1535 and is known as the Coverdale Bible.

● The Geneva Bible was the first Bible to add verses to chapters for easier reference. This Bible was published in 1560 and remained the most popular Bible for decades after the 1611 King James version was released. The Geneva Bible was the first Bible taken to America by the Puritans and Pilgrims.

● Additions have been made to the original text of the Bible. These additions were simply made to help our English version make grammatical sense. The AV and NKJV translations indicate these additions by writing them in italics. There are however some additions and changes particularly to the New Testament that are not shown in italics. Fortunately many Bibles today including the NKJV list these additions in the centre margin for your convenience. Two examples of this are the following words that are later additions to 1 John 5:7-8 in the AV: "...in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one. And there are three that bear witness on earth...", and the words, "in heaven", were added to Heb.10:34. All of those words are man made additions to the Authorised Version, and are not found in the original Greek New Testament manuscripts.
